CROSSFIELD.—There was a fair sized crowd in attendance at the annual meeting of the Crossfield Sports Club held in the rink recently. Owing to the unavoidable absence of the secretary no financial statement was available, but President E. M. McNaughton stated that all accounts were paid and a good bank balance left over.

Election of officers for 1950 resulted in George Jones being elected president; E. M. McNaughton, vice-president; and Blake Stillings, secretary-treasurer.

It was decided to hold a sports day on July 5, along similar lines to previous years, and a number of heads of committees were named and given power to choose their own members to assist.

Village Council Holds Meeting

CROSSFIELD.—At the regular monthly meeting of the village council held on Monday evening, Walter A. Hurt was appointed mayor for his fourth successive year.

Estimates for the year were worked upon and it was agreed that owing to a substantial raise in the amount of requisition asked for by the Calgary School Division No. 41, it will be necessary to add two mills to the mill rate, making 30 mills for school purposes and 20 for municipal.

Mr. Bert Lilley was appointed assessor to make a complete new assessment of all property in the village for use in 1951. Carl Becker was given a contract to lay approximately 400 feet of cement sidewalk at the east end of the park. Mayor Hurt and Councillor F. J. Collins will comprise the street and sidewalk committee, Councillor A. H. Rannister is to be in charge of the park and cemetery and W. R. Gilson was hired as caretaker of cemetery and fire hall.

Chair Canvass Called Success

CROSSFIELD.—The members of the board of the Crossfield Community hall met on Saturday last and received the report of the committee on the chair canvass. This report was most gratifying as a large number of chairs had been sold and the board as a whole expressed their thanks to all who had contributed and hoped that those who had promised to buy a chair and others who might have been missed would contact any member or the secretary with their donation.

It was agreed that work should proceed as soon as possible with water works and other necessary items to complete the ladies rest room part of the project.

Any organization or individuals with any sum specifically earmarked for this purpose are urgently requested to get them in to the secretary, as there are not enough funds on hand to complete this work. The extension for the stage is also to be completed just as soon as funds for this are available and it is hoped that this will be forthcoming at an early date.

It was not too well attended but with the previous sale of tickets this up and coming group were $50 on the right side of the ledger.

The Crossfield Aces supplied good, peppy music. We hope their next effort will have more support as they deserve it. Lawrence Lilley won the door prize, an auto rug.

Bootleg Cars Being Rushed To Oil-Rich Alberta

By RAYMOND ARGYLE

Automobile bootlegging — the newest cross-country racket — has assumed major proportions with bootleg cars being rushed from eastern Canada to oil-rich Alberta. The nation-wide scheme is causing a growing headache to responsible automotive dealers.

The scheme works this way. Many automobile dealers, faced with production catching up to demand, find themselves with cars on their hands. Some sell them through the back door to used car dealers, for a quick profit of perhaps $100 compared to their regular margin of $400 or $500.

Used car dealers in Toronto and other eastern cities can thus offer cars for $100 or $200 under list price. Others, aware of the big market in oil-rich Alberta, rush the cars to Alberta points, where they can be sold at list price as new, or for a few dollars under list price.

"Free transportation to western Canada, get paid while you travel," read the ads in Ontario newspapers.

Out of work men, who've heard tales of Alberta's strike-it-rich postwar oil boom, swamp to answer the ads.

The jobless men soon are on the road, driving the cars to Alberta points. Usually they travel in convoys, led by the dealer. But the men get as little as $10 a trip, and when they arrive in Alberta, they find the employment picture is not as rosy as it has been painted.

Recently, four penniless youths went to Edmonton police and told their story. They had answered a din a Toronto paper. The advertiser had 12 cars to ship to Alberta. Each man drove one out and was left stranded. They said their convoy was headed by one of a two-man partnership. One collected the cars in Toronto while the other delivered them, then flew back for another convoy.

Hundreds of bootleg trucks and cars are being delivered in Alberta, usually after having been driven at break-neck speed. Speedometers are turned back and the cars sold as new. Close to 100 are entering Edmonton every week, and about half that number go into Calgary and southern Alberta points.

There is no doubt the situation is serious. Responsible dealers, who comprise the big majority of people in the business, are up in arms at the scheme used by a small minority.

Daysland Curlers Feted at Edmonton

New Trains Slated For Edmonton-Calgary Run

Two crack new daylight flyers to be named the Stampeder and Ekimmo will be put into daily service between Calgary and Edmonton April 30 by the C.P.R.

Made up of the most modern coaches, the new trains will maintain a four and a half hour schedule between the two cities and are in addition to three other trains now on the run from each end — an overnight, a day local and the Chinook.

Departure will be 8:30 a.m. from Calgary and 3:00 p.m. from Edmonton.

The Stampeder, leaving Calgary at 8:30 a.m. will arrive in the Alberta capital at 1:00 p.m. The Ekimmo, departing at 3:00 p.m. from Edmonton, arrives at Calgary at 7:30 p.m. The schedule into and out of Calgary was drawn to give new connections to and from Crownst points and to improve transcontinental connections both ways.

Features of the trains will be three new day coaches with "Sleepy Hollow" chairs engineered for comfort, plastic murals on the end walls, glass partitions and the new look in pastel decoration. The buffet parlor car will offer the latest chair and dining accommodation. A combination passenger-baggage and a through express car will complete the trains.

The Easter Story

When Jesus Was Tried

When the first faint rays of sunshine came over the Judean hills on that first Easter morning, the tomb was empty. And this weekend, nearly 2,000 years later, the world of Christendom celebrates once again the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The events that preceded the crucifixion of Jesus are clouded in antiquity, but it can be factually stated that His trial, the greatest in Christendom, is the least known and probably the least understood.

Not until centuries had passed did mankind realize the enormity of the crime committed in that fateful week. For at the time the fate of Jesus was of paramount importance only to His followers; the event did not appear to warrant a place in the writings of contemporary historians.

The today impact of the crucifixion has established itself into a world-wide consciousness. Time has given us the proper perspective to view it as one of the most important events in the history of civilization.

Continued interest focuses attention on interesting sidelights of the event. Was the trial of Jesus in Hebrew and Roman courts legal? Was Jesus arrested on a warrant? Of what offence was He charged and on what evidence was He convicted?

It is impossible to adequately establish the course of an event 2,000 years gone by. But from the Bible, and from other ancient records imparting general background information, a pattern of events does emerge.

It appears from ancient records that restlessness among the Jews in Palestine and the precariousness attempt to arrest Jesus in public while preaching or performing His miracles could result in mob violence. It was therefore decided to arrest Him outside Jerusalem, when accompanied by but a few of His followers. Someone was needed who could identify Jesus at a distance. Judas was willing to act as an informer for the bribe that was offered him.

The soldiers of Rome followed the directions of Judas and came upon Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane, where He was conferring with His disciples. It was early evening and there Jesus was arrested.

Jesus was apparently arrested on a perfectly legal warrant issued by Caiaphas, High Priest and Chief Justice of Israel, who had been making regular reports to Rome regarding the activities of Jesus.

UNJUST AND UNLAWFUL

Jesus was thus seized and taken before the Hebrew court for the first of His two trials. There, the principal charge against Jesus seems to have been that of blasphemy against the established or-that part of the Empire. Here a charge comparable to high treason was laid by the Jewish priests. So that the Roman court would hear the charge the accusers complained that Jesus was "One Who Set Himself up as King Against Caesar".

FILATE RELOCUTANT

Pilate appears to have been extremely reluctant to press the charge, while he apparently knew nothing of the previous trial, he was skeptical of the legality of the warrant and feared that criticism would result and his own position be placed in jeopardy.

Pilate was satisfied with Jesus' explanation that His Kingship was of another world, and had he had his way, he would have given Jesus His freedom.

Thrice Pilate voiced his belief that Jesus was not guilty, and went so far as to suggest that He be given amnesty, as it was the custom during the annual feasts to bestow freedom on some person charged with a crime.

HOSTILE CROWD

The hostile crowd, stirred up by the priests, angrily denounced this suggestion. Instead they cried for the release of Barabbas, a revolutionist who was awaiting trial on charges of sedition and murder. They called out for the crucifixion of Jesus—a method of execution reserved only for the most dangerous of criminals.

It was the final and clever threat of the Jewish accusers which broke Pilate's determination: "If thou let this man go thou art not caesar's friend" (John: 19:12). The emperor would not understand that Christ's kingship was not of this world; he, Pilate, would be called to Rome and forced to commit suicide in atonement for his offence. And so Pilate yielded. Without rescinding his verdict of not guilty, he gave sentence that it should be as they required. Barabbas was released and Jesus was turned over to the mob of accusers and personal enemies, to be taken away and crucified. —R.A.

of Roman rule had caused the Empire, considerable anxiety in the past. Roman agents were on the lookout for signs of a rebellious uprising and when the enthusiastic followers of Jesus proclaimed Him 'King of the Jews', the matter was serious enough to warrant the immediate attention of Rome.

JEALOUS PRIESTS

The Jewish priests were of course jealous of Christ's following, and the Roman authorities were convinced they could end the expense of constantly investigating and watching the Christ movement by removing the leader of this so-called new political faction.

When Jesus entered Jerusalem a few days before the annual feast of the passover plans were already well afoot to deal decisively with His 'menace' and a warrant for His arrest was already in the hands of the officials. Jesus had just completed a long and successful tour of the hinterlands and had entered the city for the purpose of carrying out the culminating phases of His life.

The authorities realized that an attempt to arrest Jesus in public while preaching or performing His miracles could result in mob violence. It was therefore decided to arrest Him outside Jerusalem, when accompanied by but a few of His followers. Someone was needed who could identify Jesus at a distance. Judas was willing to act as an informer for the bribe that was offered him.

They were unlawful in that the trial was held after the commencement of the feast of the passover—when courts were forbidden to meet. The trial itself was unjust because the Sanhedrin of Judges formally predetermined that Jesus was guilty, conducted fatal to the validity of a conviction.

Caiaphas, moreover, obviously violated Jewish precedents because of no charge could Jesus be proved guilty by the necessary testimony of two agreeing witnesses. Jesus was actually convicted on His own testimony of being the Son of God, of which no fitness gave testimony and no investigation was made.

Such utter lack of evidence seems to have merely strengthened the court's determination to persecute Jesus. Had it been able, the court would have no doubt ordered His immediate execution, but under Roman law the Jewish court lacked the authority to pronounce the death sentence.

It was now early morning and the court ordered Jesus bound up and delivered to Pilate, administrator of Roman provincial law in

Court Condemns Hair Treatment

Men with receding hairlines might be better off, financially and otherwise, to disregard the Hair Farmer's full page ads in many American magazines, judging from a United States government court action against Carl Brandenfels, of St. Helena, Oregon.

Because the U.S. government has had Brandenfels in court, charged with misbranding the contents of his scalp and hair shampoo.

The charge read that "the label statements 'Scalp and Hair Treatment' and 'The Hair Farmer' were false and misleading since they represented and suggested that the articles when used as directed were effective in promoting the growth of hair, whereas the articles were not effective for such purposes."

U.S. government entered a judgment of condemnation, and the products were ordered destroyed.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

Canadian Utilities Announces Power Rate Reductions

A revision of electric light and power rates has been announced by Canadian Utilities Limited covering Smoky Lake, Wapartite, Waskatenau and Radway.

These rate schedules have been approved by the Board of Public Utility Commissioners at the request of the Company.

Applying past and present rates to a Domestic Consumption of 100 K.W.H.'s gives an example of the savings the new rates bring to the consumers in these centers.

Wapartite had no service before it was hooked up to the Canadian Utilities network but Radway, Smoky Lake and Waskatenau were served by individual plants with rate schedules that varied very slightly. Taking the average of these, the bill for a month's Domestic Consumption of 100 K.W.H.'s was $19.00 and this figure, while it does not apply to Wapartite, is used for comparative purposes. Since the company took over, identical rates have been effective in each of these four urban areas.

Before take-over, one month's bill for 100 K.W.H.'s: $19.00; in 1947, after take-over: $7.75; New rates, $5.25, or on a basis of cost per K.W.H. a decrease from 19c to 5 1/4c.

Arson Count Added To Forgery Charge

Miss Yvonne Langevin, former secretary of the Lac la Biche school division, has been charged with arson in addition to seven charges of uttering forged documents already laid against her.

The new charge has been laid as a result of a fire in the division offices February 22. School records were scorched in the blaze.

Miss Langevin appeared in police court March 30, but no plea was taken. She was remanded to April 20, and all charges will be answered at that time at Lac la Biche.

Mounted police are carrying on their investigation. Miss Langevin is free on $10,000 bail.

GOING HOME AFTER DAY'S WORK IS DONE

—Central Press Occasion—

His day's work done, King George VI is seen returning to Buckingham Palace in London in the royal coach after formally opening Britain's new Parliament. In his speech, the King proposed a mild "limited program of legislation" on behalf of the Labor government, which scraped back into power with a hairline majority. His majesty made no reference to the nationalization of steel or other socialist measures which would be fought every inch of the way by Winston Churchill and the now powerful Conservative "loyal opposition."

'Lo, The Poor Indian'

By HENRY THOMPSON

Trapping and Hunting are His Pursuits, But There's Something Else Behind It All

A young Indian from the Saddle Lake Reserve stepped into a store ahead of me with what appeared to be a sack of furs. I decided this might be interesting. The size of the sack indicated coyote pelts.
Rat season not yet started; smaller furs in a bag of that dimension would be a small fortune.

Value of raw furs from the trapper to the local store buyer depends largely on the wit and experience of the buyer and on the seller's wisdom and need for money. All raw furs in season are from the buyer's standpoint tolder on the brink of a disastrous drop. Each season this is the stock in trade argument of all the buyers and I have noticed it always works for the buyer.

I waited negotiations with some impatience but knew an Indian never offers his wares without first move by the trader. A farmer finished a large grocery order and the store keeper helped him pack his parcels to his waiting sleigh at the door. I walked up to the counter, made a small purchase and found myself a good packing case seat, determined to wait the day if necessary.

The store keeper, who seemed as anxious to know the contents of his prospective customer's parcel as I was, walked around the counter, pointing to the Indian's sack, and said, "You got furs to sell?"
"Yes," answered the Indian in perfect English, "I have three very fine pelts." He proceeded to unfasten the strings and dump the contents on the floor.

"Coyote pelts!" yelled the disappointed store keeper. "They're no good, have no value! I couldn't sell them for fifty cents apiece, no long haired fur is any good now."

However, he couldn't help but reach down and examine the pelts.
With a kind of wrist and arm motion twist he made the fur crackle in a shimmering flow grey hair in a shimmering flow that reminded me of flowing grey water skin in a lake whipped by a good stiff breeze.

The Indian seemed stunned and speechless as the merchant handed out his verdict.

"Are you telling me the truth," inquired the Indian at last. "I can hardly believe it. Why then is the government paying to hunt coyotes by plane? It must cost a pile of money to hunt them that way.

Besides, a coyote hunts mostly at night and how could flyers see them?"

"Don't ask me, I have no idea why, except that they say that is the best way to exterminate them as they destroy a lot of farmer's sheep and chickens," replied the exasperated store keeper.
"The quickest way in my opinion would be to find a market for the pelts. If the Calgarians could make their five gallon hats out of coyote pelts there wouldn't be a coyote left inside of two years."

"Huh," said the Indian as he sadly replaced his fine pelts and prepared to leave. "The white man always makes a big smoke to get a small fire."

"An Indian or white trapper doesn't kill for fun but to get money for his family. If the fur is worth nothing, we do not kill.
Let the farmer pen his stock. We Indians like to see wild animals live and are thankful some wild creatures, especially the coyotes and wolves, can never be completely exterminated. They were here to keep the balance of nature and had a useful purpose once till white man's greed broke these laws. My wife will make a nice robe of these pelts for which some white man will pay twenty-five dollars at treaty time."

In The Legislature

H. LOHAY, M.L.A.

The Honourable D. B. MacMILLAN, on reporting to the House, stated that the anticipated radio program for 1950 would exceed that of any previous year in Alberta's history.

Information was given to the House to show that on a per capita basis Alberta's grant towards education was from two to seven times as great as that of any province with the exception of British Columbia and New Brunswick.

Some of the Opposition had suggested that oil revenue should be used to reduce taxation. Premier Manning replied to this by stating that there were three reasons why the Government would not follow this practice.

In the first place, he stated, tax rates in Alberta are generally lower than the average for other provinces of Canada. Secondly, the financial position of Albertans is better than usual, and, thirdly, the general feeling of the public is that it is more desirable to increase services than to reduce taxation.

Speaking in answer to Mr. Prowse's criticism that 18 millions of dollars of the Provincial revenue is a gift from Ottawa under the Tax Transfer Agreement, Mr. Manning stated that far from such an amount being a gift from the Senior Government, it represented only a rental payment for the Dominion Government's exclusive use of the various tax fields in which they have complete jurisdiction during the life of the Tax Transfer Agreement. He pointed out to the House that the Alberta Government will give serious consideration to the amounts now being allocated by Ottawa in these tax fields before agreeing to renew the Agreement on the expiration of its present life.

The Honourable Mr. Casay told the House that education today employed 9,000 people whose wages exceed twenty million dollars yearly. He stated that Provincial grants to school districts have increased from $4,307,000 in 1946 to $7,850,000 this year. This is an increase of 82 per cent in four years. Teachers' pensions will cost the Government more than half a million dollars in 1950.

The House was told that the membership of the Farmers' Union of Alberta as at January 31, 1950, was 4,593. In reporting to the House, Honourable D. A. Irv indicated that there are over a quarter million cattle that have been tested for T.B. and every effort is being made to test the entire area between Calgary and Edmonton.

District Agriculturists and Home Economists last year contacted 176,000 people in an endeavour to assist farm people with their problems. More than a million trees will be planted in Alberta this year and every effort is being made to increase this quantity as an essential step in controlling soil erosion.

The resolution was passed in the House requesting the Dominion Government to allow Old Age Pensioners to earn more money than at present without automatically having their pension reduced.

Considerable progress is being made in the passing of the estimates and it is possible that the House might complete its work by the end of the month.

Sunday School Lesson

THE CHURCH SUFFERING AND TRIUMPHANT
International Sunday School Lesson for April 9, 1950
MEMORY SELECTION: "If we endure, we shall also reign with him." — II Timothy 2: 12.

Lesson Text: I Peter 4: 12-13; Revelation 7: 9-11

In the larger lesson given for our study this week, we have the story of the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. The experiences of this Palm Sunday are definitely related to the general theme of this lesson. It is significant that all of the Gospel writers lay stress on the voluntary character of Christ's death. He deliberately faced Jerusalem, although he knew that, to do so, meant certain death.

The multitudes were inspired with great enthusiasm. They "spread their garments in the way," but this same multitude, a few days later, cried, "Crucify him, crucify him."

In the groups that followed Jesus in the procession to Jerusalem was Peter the Galilean fisherman, and one of the leaders among the disciples. This same Peter became one of the greatest of the leaders in the early church. His knowledge of Jesus was founded on a personal relationship with him and it is believed that his influence in the early church was second only to that of Paul.

The first letter of Peter was written to the early Christians in a time of special affliction. Edgar J. Goodspeed, in "How to Read the Bible," declared: "The modern Christian naturally intends to be a good citizen of his country, but the early Christians lived under a pagan government which did not regard their religion as legal, and sometimes attacked them. The demand for emperor worship as a token of loyalty to the empire was one Christians could not possibly comply with, and it threatened to drive them into disloyalty and sedition.

"But a nobler solution of the problem was proposed in I Peter, which called on the Christian brotherhood to obey the state, respect the emperor, and love even their enemies. This was the true attitude for the church to assume in the face of persecution. If persecution came, it must be endured as part of the will of God. Therefore those who suffer by the will of God must intrust their souls to a Creator who is faithful, and continue to do what is right." This was the patient heroism which was later to overcome the world.

There is no organized movement of which there is a record which has ever shown the marked progress the church showed during its early years of existence. This progress may be attributed in large measure to the opposition and persecution it encountered. "The growing influence of the church was seen in the enemies it made and the opposition it encountered," says J. W. Conley, in The Early Church. "A movement of no influence awakens no opposition."

The Book of Revelation was written by the Apostle John "in a time when the forces of righteousness and faith seemed threatened with extinction. The Roman Empire's demand for emperor worship as a token of loyalty from all its subjects except the Jews brought it for the first time into collision with the young Christian Church, and threatened the church with immediate destruction. But the Christian prophet declares that whatever disasters may overtake the world and threaten the church, the one certain thing about the future is the final triumph of the Kingdom of God. So, the Christian is to move undismayed through plague, famine, war, invasion, earthquake, flood and death sure that the govern-

School Grants Exceed $120,000

MORINVILLE.—At its regular monthly meeting, held Thursday, March 14 in the Municipal District office here, the council received requisitions for school grants totaling $124,739.42. Requisitions were received from all but two school districts.

Sturgeon School Division No. 24 led the list of requisitions with a sum of $117,453. Thibault R.C. Public School District No. 35 asked for $5,042.45, Ste. Bernadette R.C. School Division No. 34 asked for $1,700, and Stony Plain School Division No. 23 asked $542.97. Requisitions were not received from Westlock School Division and Clyde Consolidated School District.

On motion of councillor Walker it was decided to make first quarterly payments at once, as soon as requisitions had been received by the secretary and found in order.

Account was received from the Manawag Drainage District for bridges and culverts which totaled $3,307.52. This assessment was prepared by the engineer for the construction of bridges and culverts. It was moved by Councillor Meunier that the MD write the drainage district and ask if this amount be accepted, whether this amount could be paid in two equal instalments over a period of two years.

Councillor Walker moved that the MD advise the Dept. of Public Works of the cancellation of six miles of road allowance ad-eighty of the world will finally belong to our God and his Christ, and he will reign forever and ever . . ." Edgar J. Goodspeed, How to Read the Bible.

In these modern days, when comfort and prosperity are a mark of our common life, we need to guard against a religion that is too easy, too comfortable. We do not, however, need to actually experience religious persecution in order to maintain the triumphant church. All Christians need the courage to persevere in the grind of daily life, the faith to bear the burdens common to all and love which should undergird all activities in His name.

By motion of Councillor Walker it was moved that permission be granted to Calgary Power to install electric power systems in Villeneuve, and elsewhere in the Municipal District.

In order to avoid a repetition of last year's tremendous fire losses, it has been decided that no burning permits will be issued in the area west of Highway 2, Canaway to Edmonton and north of Highway 16, Edmonton to Lloydminster, after April 1 until such times as conditions are safe.

Applications as cat-operators were received and filed for future reference from E. T. Comeau, Eddie Bachand and Germain Beuver.

Grants were presented to agricultural section of the Morinville Board of Trade ($50), to the public libraries at St. Albert and Morinville ($50 each), and to the Red Cross ($25).

Three emergency orders for relief were issued by the council.

Beautification Campaign Set For May 21-27

"Clean up, paint up, light up!" This is the slogan for the national beautification campaign being sponsored this spring by the Canadian Junior Chamber of Commerce. Nearly 400 communities are expected to take part in the campaign, which will be climaxed with a National Beautification Week May 21 to 27.

The Canadian Beautification Bureau is now contacting organizations, the press, and civic councils, with a view to making 1950's clean-up campaign the most effective ever sponsored in Canada. Address of the Bureau is 616 Sun Life Bldg., Montreal.

17,000 University Graduates Expected This Spring

Nearly 17,000 university graduates, made up largely of war veterans with family responsibilities, will be moving into Canada's full time working force this spring amidst the most critical employment conditions since 1941.

National Employment Service and Department of Labor is already swinging into action in an effort to place 1950's graduates in suitable positions. On the prairie, 5,312 persons out of a total prairie university enrollment of 19,265, are expected to graduate. Fifty of these are post-graduates, the remainder undergraduate students.

Of these 5,000-plus graduates, 1,415 will be in arts and sciences, 1,311 in engineering and applied science, 478 in agriculture, 413 in commerce, 382 in education, and the remainder in such diverse fields as law, pharmacy, social service and medicine.

Out of Alberta's 271 engineer graduates, 60 will be in chemical, 81 in civil, 78 in electrical, 29 in mining, 13 in petroleum, and 10 in the field of physics.

Youth Leaders Visit Far North Centres

A Boy Scout and a Girl Guide leader have returned from a 4,000 mile trip throughout Alberta and the Northwest Territories visiting Indian, Eskimo and white members of the youth movement in 13 far north centres.

Making the trip were Beth Riddeh, Alberta field secretary of the Girl Guide movement, and Herb Northcott of Ottawa, field commissioner of the Boy Scouts.

Miss Riddeh and Mr. Northcott have visited groups ranging in size from four to more than a hundred in McMurray.

Other points visited—including an Eskimo community 200 miles inside the Arctic Circle—include Hay River, Yellowknife, Fort Radium and Aklavik.

Weed Control Is Practical Reality

Control of destructive weeds is now becoming a practical reality, with new and effective weapons to combat the weed plague on the prairies.

Selective chemical weed control is the newest principle used in fighting the costly weed hazard. Since 1943, when experiments were first launched on chemical weed control in western Canada, the most important development has been that of 2,4-D, pioneered by the National Grain Company.

It is estimated that in 1949 upwards of eight million acres of farmlands were sprayed with 2,4-D. Recent experiments show that control of weeds has been obtained by using volumes as low as one and a half gallons per acre.

A "Handbook on Chemical Weed Control" is available from National Grain Company, Winnipeg, which deals with latest methods in the war on weeds.

Modern Weed Control With 2,4-D

After four years of intensive testing, 2,4-D is now universally recognized as an effective and powerful weapon for the control of weeds in cereal and flax crops. It is expected that over 10 million acres in Western Canada will be treated with 2,4-D in 1950. Some important factors affecting the safe, economical and successful control of weeds with 2,4-D are mentioned briefly here.

Effect on Weeds. Weeds vary greatly in their reaction to 2,4-D. Some weeds are very sensitive, while others are very tolerant of this chemical. Know the weeds you want to kill, and then follow control recommendations carefully. It cannot be stressed too strongly that the best results with 2,4-D are obtained when weeds, particularly annual weeds, are in the seedling stage, and when conditions are favourable for rapid, vigorous weed growth. Most weeds become more resistant to 2,4-D as they approach maturity. Furthermore, weeds are much harder to kill during dry, hot weather when soil moisture is low.

Essence of success in weed control with 2,4-D rests in the early treatment of weed growth.

Effect on Crops. Cereal crops should not be treated with 2,4-D until the plants have reached the 3-leaf stage, or a height of about 4 inches. They can then be treated with safety until they have reached the early shot-blade stage. On no account should cereal crops be treated during the flowering and early-heading stages. Flax, on the other hand, may be safely treated as soon as seed growth warrants. provided the plants have already formed 4 or 5 leaves. Flax should not be treated after the plants have started to bud since there will be grave risk of injuring the crop.

Prepare Now. Now is the time to plan your 1950 chemical weed control program. Your local Line Elevator Agent can supply you with the latest and best available information on the use of 2,4-D.

Thousands of successful Butane-Propane engine installations using ENSIGN Carburetors result in handsome dividends in fuel savings and in greatly reduced maintenance. There is no hard carbon. Lubricating oil can safely run three to four times as long. Because Butane-Propane burns as a dry gas, lubricating oil is neither diluted nor washed from cylinder walls. This means longer engine life than with gasoline or diesel fuel. Tractors, trucks and stationary engines burning Butane-Propane run three to four seasons without overhaul or valve grind.

Even Chimps In Africa Have Teeth Troubles

Those who cast around to find fresh evidence that civilization isn't a fit state for human beings, will be disappointed by recent word from Liberia via the Peabody Museum at Harvard University. It appears that we can't altogether blame tooth decay on the modern diet with its sugar content, for a seven months study of 214 chimpanzees' skulls shows a goodly quota of dental troubles. The specimens from a primitive Eden had similar living conditions—yet some had a rash of cavities, while others were almost decay free. Strangely enough, those with evidence of bad toothaches did not have access to refiner sugar, candy, soft drinks, or pastry.

Dr. Ernest A. Hooton, Harvard professor of anthropology, a Boston dentist who checked over the teeth, find this significant. The fact that decay hit some animals and left others intact emphasizes the genetic and constitutional backgrounds, factors that have been grossly neglected in the search for causative agents in dental caries.

Chimps make good subjects for troubles are like man's. They also get two sets of teeth, of the same number and same structure as man's.

Good Health for ALBERTANS

DAILY DOES IT

Regular brushing after meals and twice-yearly visits to the dentist "whether you need it or not" will help to keep your teeth healthy. Much of the pain and discomfort that often results from poor teeth can be prevented. Good dental care is particularly important for children.

WEAR AND TEAR

A season's wear and tear, plus a winter's storage nearly always means breaks and holes in your screen doors and window screening. These holes admit insect pests which in many cases carry filth and disease into the home. Good screening is a sound preventive health measure. Check all your screens thoroughly this spring.

A VALUABLE SOURCE

Eggs are valuable sources of protein and iron and are rich in some of the vitamins. There are few foods which contain so much nutritive value in such a small package. Medium size eggs are often a good buy, containing almost as much food value as the higher priced large size.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR

Your family doctor is best qualified to tell you whether or not you are in good physical condition. If he is able to check you over thoroughly at least once a year, he'll be able to keep you in trim more easily. Regular medical check-ups often detect serious illnesses in their early stages, making possible quicker and easier cures.

BATTLE OF THE BUDGET

In these days of soaring food prices many housewives are fighting a losing battle to keep the family budget under control. One way to help is to organize the food buying schedule to accent the lower cost, higher food value foods at the expense of the high cost, low food value items.

ACCIDENTS DON'T HAPPEN

For many families, an accident to the breadwinner means not only pain and expense but also the cutting off of the family income for an indefinite period. Many industrial and home accidents are due to carelessness. Don't let familiarity with the routine dangers of the job make you careless. Your family will have to suffer with you.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa:

I am 19 years old and am married to a boy the same age. We have been married two years and have a baby.

Ever since the baby came my husband has been leaving me alone at night and going out by himself. He goes to movies and even to parties, while I sit home and nurse. He says he's not going to tie himself down and not have any fun. And lately he has hardly been giving me any money to run the house with or to buy clothes. I am all upset and my thinking of going home to my mother. She didn't want me to get married, anyway. What would you advise?

Ohio

Answer:

It is pathetic for children to marry so young—before they are ready for the responsibilities and sacrifices that matrimony entails. Neither you nor your husband had had your lifetime before you married, but you probably refused to listen to your parents when they advised you to wait until you were older. You got your way, and now you are paying for it, but your husband is selfishly in-stating on having his cake and eating it, too.

I see no future in such a life for you unless you two have a showdown. Whatever money he makes over your living expenses should go in savings and recreation for you both.

If he has been going out several times a week, he can take the same amount that he has been spending, hire a responsible person to stay with the baby and take you out for one evening. Other evenings can be spent reading, listening to the radio, playing games and doing a little inexpensive entertaining at home.

I hate to advise any wife to leave her husband but if your husband will not agree to some such plan and insists on behaving as he is doing, I should advise you to go home and try to get a job.

Let's Eat

BY
IDA BAILEY ALLEN

When a homemaker becomes 40ish years of age or older, one of two problems may have to be solved. With the children grown she has too much unfulfilled time. And in some cases she is confronted for the first time with the problem of earning her own living.

The solution to either or both problems would be simple if she had only looked ahead during the years of her 30s and acquired a thrilling interesting hobby or vocation which might be turned to money-making later on if necessary.

"But I don't have time for a hobby!" I can almost hear many busy homemakers say. You're mistaken. You can find the time by practicing more short cuts in housekeeping and cooking. Moreover, you can't afford not to have a hobby—otherwise you may become psychologically "rigid", a spiritless mother and a dull companion to your husband.

Procedure

Start sweet potatoes to boil. Start ham to bake. Make pudding. Peel potatoes, slice and start to grill. Shred cabbage and start cooking. Prepare peanut butter canapés. Open tomato juice. Set table. Start coffee and reheat rolls, or finish baking ready-to-bake rolls. Serve dinner.

All Measurements Are Level
Recipes Serve Four Cranberryed Ham Slice.

Trim the rind from 1 lb. tenderloin ham sliced a scant ¼ in. thick. Place the ham in a baking dish into which it just fits. Pour over 1¼ c. cranberry sauce mixed with 1 tbsp. vinegar. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375-400 F. until the ham is tender, about 20 min. Baste twice with the juice in the pan.

Cocky Cramb Pudding

Beat 1 egg; add 1½ c. crumbed stale cookies or cake, 3 tsp. honey or sugar, 1 tsp. allspice or ¼ tsp. each nutmeg, cinnamon and clove, and 2½ c. heated milk. Transfer to a buttered or margarine casserole. Stirred egg dishes and bake in a moderately hot oven, 375 F. until set and firm on the top, about 15 min. Serve warm or cold with light cream, whipped topping or with melted jelly foamy sauce.

Melted Jelly Foamy Sauce: Add ¼ c. any tart red jelly to ½ c. boiling water. Cook and stir until the jelly melts. Then beat into 1 egg white which has been whipped stiff. Serve at once.

The Chef Suggests Grilled Sweet Potatoes

Scrub good-sized sweet potatoes. Cut off the ends and boil potatoes until half done, about 20 minutes, or pressure-cook 4 minutes at 15 lbs. Peel and slice lengthwise ¼ in. thick. Brush both sides with melted butter or margarine. Dust with salt and grill about 8 minutes at a distance of 4 in. from the heat. Turn once. When almost done sprinkle over 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce.

seeing, and they hope to give service next to none in the province.

Also Mr. Schmalz visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmalz's children at the O'Connell Home, where there are 110 children at the present time. He was talking to Anita and Lena, but missed seeing Marie due to her having to attend another school for grade IX. He found the little girls looking well, and in good spirits.

Lions Club Notes

By W. H. TIDY

BEISEKER.—A Lions Club, broadens acquaintance, makes friends, develops friendship and produces good fellowship. It keeps friendship in good repair.

Friendship is based upon service—unselfish service. A man is not your friend unless he is willing to serve you, and you are not his friend unless you are willing to serve him; and out of this common interest or desire for common service, springs friendship.

We meet today and form an acquaintance. By cultivating him he grows into a friend, and as the days go by, by serving him, friendship develops. As the months go by, through the constant enjoyment and employment of each other's friendship, there emanates that noble feeling which we consecrate as good fellowship.

Good fellowship comes from long-standing friendship.

Lions shrines and sanctuaries are in the hearts of men. They have the settled faith of men in men. They pass all boundaries of nations and of creeds. They ask only the open heart, the honest purpose, the cheerful countenance. They give the password of the kindling eye, the pledge of the hearty hand. Their finest messages are unspoken.

Hurry up and get well, Lion Ken. We are all pulling for you.

LEVELAND TOPICS

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grabo of Laming Mills were visiting in the Leveland district over the weekend, and have left for Laming Mills, Monday.

Emil Suehle from Lacombe is in the Leveland district for the past week, doing carpenter work for Albert Heuther. Emil is using his saw for more than sawing lumber, he has given us several good musical selections on it.

Mrs. Dennis underwent a serious operation in the University hospital in Edmonton. Gladys, her daughter from Laming Mills is staying with her.

ESTABLISH and OWN Fast Growing, Profitable BUSINESS

Alberta organization with dealers already established in this territory wishes to further consolidate and expand their sales and service by setting up a business control in the Crossfield area. This exclusive franchise calls for a person or persons with a reputation of integrity, stability and practical business experience in handling dealer and consumer sales promotion and business management. Applicant must have or be prepared to invest in show room, service facilities, stock and equipment in return for complete overriding income through dealers, consumers, installation and service profits, and profit on all product sales and equipment lease rentals. One dominating phase of the business is a product recently made marketable and one that is in great demand by all rural homes. Once installed there is continuous service income from every unit leased. We are prepared to assist the right party in financing this business. Interested persons are invited to make application in writing, stating qualifications and financial status to J. J. Gibbons Limited, Renfrew Building, Calgary, who are acting in our behalf.

Alberta oil has changed his future

The boy doesn't know it yet. Many a grown-up doesn't realize it—but the new oil fields of Alberta brighten Canada's future.

Western oil is saving 100 million scarce U.S. dollars this year. Dollars we don't have to pay out for oil imports. This means money to buy other imports we need—things that cannot be grown or made in Canada. Next year Alberta oil should save 145 million U.S. dollars!

Then, too, the search for oil is making a big new market in Alberta for things the rest of Canada has to sell. The oil industry is spending $3 millions a week in the west. Across the nation this money is fostering new industries, expanding plants, creating jobs, paying wages, building homes.

And in the prairies petroleum product prices are lower than they would have been if oil had not been found. Prairie consumers saved more than $30 millions last year. Anything that helps prairie prosperity helps all Canada.

Oil is important to us all. More oil means a higher standard of living. The search for oil is unending, a costly business, often disappointing. But the job is pressing forward. And new-found oil is changing our future... promising a better, brighter future for Canadians—man and boy alike!

This advertisement is reprinted throughout Canada in daily and week-end newspapers

Bringing you oil is a big job... and a costly one

Our Name and What It Means

Lion's Club Outlined

By JACK HORAN

- L—Loyalty to country, community and home.
- I—Individual integrity in thought, word and deed.
- O—Our flag, our language.
- N—New ideals, new hopes, new ambitions in business and profession.
- S—Service that is founded on the Golden Rule.

To create a spirit of "generous consideration" among the peoples of the world through a study of international relationship; to promote good government and good citizenship; to promote the civic, commercial, social and moral welfare of our community; to build friendship, good fellowship and mutual understanding; to encourage efficiency and promote high ethical standards in business and professions.

The Lions Club of West Jasper Place is trying to live up to its assignments. Last Saturday at the East School, the club sponsored a very successful St. Patrick's Dance. The Lions extend thanks to the citizens of our community. Through generous assistance and co-operation the Lions Club realized more than $100.00.

This sum, along with what the Lions Club will receive from the sale of subscriptions to the West Jasper Place Review and from the Giant Auction Sale which is scheduled for Saturday, May 13, will go into the building of YOUR AUDITORIUM.

Unfortunately, there seems to be some misunderstanding regarding this Auditorium. Some people are under the impression that auditorium will belong to the Lions Club. This impression is wrong. The Lions Club will raise the necessary money to build this auditorium and when it is completed, the auditorium will be given to the community. It is YOUR AUDITORIUM but it is a LION PROJECT.

When a Lion member calls at your home for your subscription to the West Jasper Place Review, please have your money ready. Every subscription means another dollar towards Your Auditorium.

We ask you to dig into your basements, garages and attics for items that are not wanted. We can and will auction them off. Others in the community will be glad to bid on them and every cent goes into your auditorium.

A list of Lions Club members follows:

George Binnington, 16102-100 Ave.; Angel Barry, 10502-156 Street; Glen Berry, 9923-160 Street; Milton Burton, 10626, St. P. Rd.; Richard Butler, 15126 St. P. TRAINED

A visitor to a large factory told the manager he could pick out all the married men among the employees. He stationed himself at the door, and as the men came from dinner, he asked to those he thought were married. In almost every case he was right.

"How do you do it?" asked the amazed manager.

"Oh, it's quite simple," replied the traveller. "The married men single men don't."
